Slutiski Village and old believers' rural courtyard

Slutiski old believers' village is situated in Slutiski, Naujene parish, on the right bank of the Daugava river. In Naujene Local History Museum holdings for the first time Slutiski as a village was mentioned in 1785. Decoration of houses is similar to our neighbours, wood carving masters – the Slavs. Slavonic architectural traditions basically are expressed in magnificent decorations of facades, window frames and doors.

In Slutiški village it is possible to see outdoor exposition "Rural Court of Slutiški" – unique example of spiritual and household culture. Exposition consists from two parts: "Old Believers' House" and "Horse harnesses and tools in Daugavpils region".
